Oral Review:

The Story So Far:

- The New Testament begins after 400 years of silence.
- There are four gospels and each tell of the life of Christ.

Matthew:

- Was written to the Jews to show that the long-awaited Messiah had come.
- He uses a great deal of prophecy showing that Christ has fulfilled many of them.

Mark:

- This is the shortest gospel and was written to the Romans to show that Jesus was the suffering servant.

Luke:

- Shows Jesus as the perfect man and was written to the Greeks.
- Those three gospels are called synoptic because they include much of the same material although they are written for different audiences.

John:

- Was written to all men and shows Jesus as the Son of God.

Acts:

- Tells the history of the early church from the time Jesus is raised to heaven until Paul is close to death by execution.

A bit about Paul and his writings:

- He was a persecutor of Christians, brilliant in mind and zealous for Judaism.
- He saw Christianity as a dangerous cult bent on undermining the Jewish laws.
- He was a Pharisee, committed to protecting the traditions and laws of the faith.
- On the road to Damascus, where he was planning to arrest the Christians, he was struck blind and heard the voice of Jesus.
- That encounter was so dramatically life changing that Paul became one of the strongest proponents of the Christian faith.
- His audience was predominately Gentiles.
- Paul wrote nine letters to various churches, addressing problems and questions the new congregations had.
- He also wrote four letters to pastors, usually young men who were struggling to lead these new churches.

What to remember from Romans: God's Righteousness Described

Who:	Author: Paul
	Audience: Believers in Rome
What:	Paul's discourse on God's gift of righteousness, which is received by faith and results in right living.
When:	Written around AD 57, near the end of Paul's third missionary journey.
Where:	Written to Rome from Corinth
Why:	To combat false teaching regarding righteousness.

Wrap Up: Pray that the truths in this profound theological book would reach not only the minds but also the hearts of each person in the class and that they would not be ashamed of the Gospel, understanding that in it the righteousness of God is revealed.

Review Activity for Session Forty-Five: Romans

Ask the class if they can reconstruct the history of the Old Testament giving the main ideas for the following sets. Have the class work as a team, and when they get hung up, allow them to use their Bibles if necessary. Allow about fifteen minutes.

- Pentateuch
- Kingdom Books
- Post Exilic Books
- Poetical Books
- Major Prophets
- Early Minor Prophets
- Later Minor Prophets
- New Testament History

Oral Review:

The Story So Far:

The Gospels:

- The four gospels tell about the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Messiah and Savior.
- Jesus left heaven and lived among men for approximately 33 years.
- He devoted the last three years of his life to teaching, preaching, healing, and challenging the religious order of His day.
- His virgin birth, life, and death fulfilled many of the Old Testament prophecies and His resurrection from the dead proved He was indeed God.
- His death was an atonement for the sins of those who would believe in Him.

Acts:

- The book of Acts tells of Christ's ascension into heaven, the coming of the Holy Spirit, and the birth of the church of Jesus Christ.
- Through Christ's disciples, especially Peter and Paul, the gospel of Jesus Christ spread through much of the known world at that time and churches were established in many of the larger cities.
- The book also includes Paul's three missionary journeys.

Romans:

- Paul wrote the letter to the Romans to clearly explain righteousness, sin, salvation, justification, and glorification.
- It is a formal and most thoroughly theological letter and lays a foundation for the rest of Paul's letters to the churches.

Written Review: The written review is on the next page.

What to remember from First Corinthians: Church Problems Corrected

Who:	Author: Paul
	Audience: Believers in Corinth
What:	A letter addressing problems within the church.
When:	Written in AD 56
Where:	Written to Corinth from Ephesus
Why:	To answer questions brought to Paul by some church members

Wrap Up: Pray for the church and the people in it, that God would unify the believers and that they would be a living testimony to the greatness of God and the power of Jesus Christ. Pray that the church would have a great influence in the community and represent Christ well as it shows the world Christ's love.

Galatians

- Was written to the church in Galatia and clearly and passionately clarifies the gospel; we are saved by faith and not by the law.
- We have freedom through Christ alone from enmity with God and from the heavy burden of trying to do good enough to win God's approval.

Ephesians:

- Was written from prison and calls believers to a holy walk because of who they are in Jesus Christ and the great blessings we receive through Him.

What to remember from Philippians:
Joy in Christ

Who:	Author: Paul Audience: Believers in Philippi
What:	A thank you letter to the Philippian church
When:	Written in AD 62
Where:	Written to Philippi from a Roman prison
Why:	To give thanks for the Philippians and to encourage them

Wrap Up: Pray that each one of the students would come to know the true joy of the Lord, that they would be able to “see others as more important than themselves” and that they would reflect that joy to those they meet.

Written Review for Session Fifty: Philippians

Have the students write the names of the books we have studied so far in the New Testament (Five New Testament History books and five Paul's Letters to the Churches). By each name write the theme of that book. Do not work as a team for this but allow each to do their own. Then give the answers and have each student correct their own work.

Oral Review:

The Story So Far:

The Gospels:

- The four gospels tell about the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ the Messiah and Savior.
- Jesus left heaven and lived among men for approximately 33 years.
- He devoted the last three years of his life to teaching, preaching, healing, and challenging the religious order of His day.
- His virgin birth, life, and death fulfilled many of the Old Testament prophecies and His resurrection from the dead proved He was indeed God.
- His death was an atonement for the sins of those who would believe in Him.

Acts:

- Tells of Christ's ascension into heaven, the coming of the Holy Spirit, and the birth of the church of Jesus Christ.
- Through Christ's disciples, especially Peter and Paul, the gospel of Jesus Christ spread through much of the known world at that time and churches were established in many of the larger cities.
- The book also includes Paul's three missionary journeys.

Romans:

- Paul wrote this letter to clearly explain righteousness, sin, salvation, justification, and glorification.
- It is a formal and most thoroughly theological letter and lays a foundation for the rest of Paul's letters to the churches.

First Corinthians:

- Was written to the church in Corinth to address specific problems the church was having and to answer questions that had been sent to Paul.

Second Corinthians:

- Was written as a defense of Paul's ministry, his authority, and apostleship.
- It describes all he had been through for the sake of the gospel.
- He points the way to living victoriously by the grace of God.

Galatians:

- Was written to the church in Galatia and clearly and passionately clarifies the gospel; we are saved by faith and not by the law.
- We have freedom through Christ alone from enmity with God and from the heavy burden of trying to do good enough to win God's approval.

Ephesians

- Was written from prison and calls believers to a holy walk because of who they are in Jesus Christ and the great blessings we receive through Him.

Philippians:

- Was also written from prison.
- Paul clearly reveals the secret to joy and contentment: to live is Christ to die is gain.

| Where: | Written to Colossae from a Roman prison  |
| Why:   | To respond to concerns shared by Epaphras, the pastor of the church in Colossae who visited Paul in Rome and informed him that heresy was being taught in the church |

Wrap Up: Pray that the students would grow in their knowledge and love for Jesus Christ as the perfect man and as God and Lord of all.

Review Activity for Session Fifty-One: Colossians

Put the names of the books that have been covered so far on cards. You may wish to begin with Genesis or if the group is small and there is a time restriction begin with the New Testament books. Have them work as a group and put the cards in the order they appear in the Bible. If using only the New Testament, have each person choose a card and tell what that book is about and what it teaches about God. The group can help as needed.
