Oral Review:
The Story So Far:
Brief overview of the Old Testament:

- God created the world and everything in it.
- Man and woman listened to Satan and sin entered the world.
- The world became so wicked God brought a flood but God kept Noah and his family safe in an ark.
- Later, God chose Abraham and gave him three promises: many descendants, land and one of his descendants would bless the whole world.
- Four hundred years later that family grew to over 2.5 million but were enslaved in Egypt.
- Moses led the people out of Egypt and forty years later Joshua led the people into the promised land.
- For three hundred and fifty years judges ruled.
- The people wanted a king.
- Saul was the first king, David was the second king and his son Solomon was the third king.
- Under Solomon’s son’s rule, the nation was divided into Judah and Israel but both nations followed other gods.
- Israel was conquered and scattered by Assyria in 722 BC.
- In 586 BC, Babylon conquered and exiled Judah.
• After 70 years of exile the people came back to the land and rebuilt the temple and the wall around Jerusalem.
• During this time sixteen writing prophets and many other continued to warn the nations to turn back to God but they would not listen.

Brief overview of the New Testament Historical books:
• Four hundred years later, God sent His Son Jesus to earth, born to a virgin.
• He began his earthly ministry at the age of thirty and for three years taught, preached, and did many miracles.
• He was crucified, died and was buried, but three days later he rose from the dead.
• He later ascended into heaven.
• The Holy Spirit came to live within the believers and the church was born.
• Peter and Paul and many other disciples began to teach and preach salvation through Christ alone whose blood saves us from the wrath of God.
• At the end of the book of Acts churches had been established throughout much of the known world.

Brief overview of Paul’s Letters to the Churches:
• The Apostle Paul wrote nine letters to the churches.
• These letters are titled by the name of the recipient, such as Romans was sent to the church in Rome.
• Each letter was written for a specific reason yet all include instructions for holy living before a righteous God.
• The churches were struggling to deal with the many problems and questions that were arising.
• Paul’s brilliant mind and moral courage faced each issue head on these letters that are as important today as they were two thousand years ago.

- He was crucified, died, and was buried, but three days later he rose from the dead.
- He later ascended into heaven.
- The Holy Spirit came to live within the believers and the church was born.
- Peter and Paul and many other disciples began to teach and preach salvation through Christ alone whose blood saves us from the wrath of God and whose life transforms us to be more and more like Him.
- At the end of the book of Acts, churches had been established throughout much of the known world thanks to Peter and Paul.
- Through Peter and Paul’s preaching and teaching, Gentiles were included as heirs to the Kingdom of God.

Brief overview of Paul’s Letters to the Churches:
- The Apostle Paul wrote nine letters to the churches.
- These letters are titled by the name of the recipient, such as Romans was sent to the church in Rome.

Review Activity for Session Fifty-Seven: Philemon

Make cards with the names of the books we have studied so far from Letters to the Churches and the Letters to the Pastors.

Break into groups of no more than four.

Each group may choose two cards.

Give the group about 5-10 minutes to compile an oral summary of everything they remember about those books.

One person is chosen to stand and tell all the information they have summarized.

When each group finishes, the other groups may add to what that the team has already done.
